

Sarah Sinclair (she/her) is a member of Peguis First Nation, Treaty One, Manitoba, and was born and raised on Mohkinstis, Treaty 7. Sarah is the lawyer and program supervisor for Sahwoo mohkaak tsi ma taas, the Indigenous justice program at Calgary Legal Guidance. Sahwoo mohkaak tsi ma taas' mission is to effect systemic change in access to justice for Indigenous people. To that end, Sarah provides pro bono legal services to individuals who would not otherwise have access to a lawyer, and cultural education and competency training to legal professionals. Sarah's passion is to help accelerate the use of Indigenous law in everyday practice throughout the legal profession.

Sarah is a member of the Indigenous Circle of the Alberta Human Rights Commission, the Board of Directors of the Aboriginal Friendship Centre of Calgary, and the Reconciliation Advisory Roster of the Law Society of Alberta. She is an alumni of Calgary's Top 40 Under 40 awards, 2021.
